

Charly Cox

Poet, Artist and Activist

---

Charly Cox is a poet, artist and activist.

Her work centers around gender equality and destigmatizing and advocating for better care and rights for those with mental illness. She has published three poetry collections with Harper Collins, her debut, She Must Be Mad, was a bestseller of 2018 awarded her a place on the covered Forbes 30 under 30 list and ELLE Magazines Power Players. She regularly performs her work to sell out crowds and recently has taken stage at Wilderness Festival, the World Economic Forum, Cannes Lions Festival and The Houses of Parliament. She has collaborated on bespoke commissions for Soho House, Bentley, Rosewood Hotels, ASICS, and Molton Brown to name a few. Charly is currently working on her first novel.