Justin 'Dustbin' Tsang is a cook specialising in indulgent, home-cooked Asian food with a twist. Inspired by his upbringing and work as a chef in his parent's Chinese restaurants, he shares his knowledge on cooking techniques and making Asian cooking more exciting and accessible.

Incorporating lifestyle and music into his nonchalant style of cooking, he shares his recipes online to spread his expertise. An associate of Mob, he regularly features on their platform. Justin's debut cookbook 'Long Day? Cook This.' will be published August 2025 by Ebury, Penguin.
