

Tom Gray

Presenter & Storyteller

Tom Gray is a motorsport fanatic, presenter and storyteller with a passion for cars that's impossible to miss. A proud DRIVEN ambassador, car enthusiast and history nerd he has built an extremely engaged audience by sharing everything from incredible cars and motorsport culture to the bravest souls on earth and their achievements in war.

Whether he's chatting to some of motorsport's biggest names with his signature wooden spoon in hand or taking viewers on a journey through British history and beyond, Tom's engaging storytelling has become his trademark. Rarely seen without one of his fabulous hats, he brings warmth, humour and enthusiasm to every piece of content.

Alongside his work, Tom is also a passionate mental health advocate, using his platform to encourage open conversations and support others.
