

Daz Black

Popular YouTube gamer, social media superstar and comedy writer

Daz is a comedian and content creator, best known for his hugely popular YouTube channel Daz Games, which features a mix of gaming and comedy content.

In 2024 Daz embarked on a 23-date comedy tour across the US. And following the success of his unique horror attraction at Alton Towers in 2023, Daz's escape maze – Daz Games: Panic Reloaded – returned in October 2024.

Daz's career started in April 2013 when he began creating content on Vine. Within a year, he had amassed millions of fans. Alongside his YouTube channel, Daz has also launched a successful TikTok with over eight million followers, while his travel, lifestyle and fishing YouTube channel Off the Hook has attracted more than one million followers.

In 2019 Daz completed his first sell out UK tour, Daz Watches Live. It gave fans the chance to enjoy Daz's much loved content in a live format that delivered comedy, game play, audience interactions and some surprises along the way!

Alongside Daz's online content, he is also an accomplished actor and stand up comedian, having made cameos for the likes of 'Brotherhood' and 'Eddie the Eagle'. In 2019 he performed his first stand up gig at the Edinburgh Fringe and returned there in 2023.
