

Daz Black

Popular YouTube Gamer, Household Vine Superstar & Comedy Writer

Daz is a comedian and content creator, his career began back in April 2013 when he launched on Vine and within a year had amassed millions of fans. From there he expanded to YouTube where he creates long form content, he quickly grew a following of over 9 million across his two channels (Daz Games and Daz Black), which feature a mix of comedy and gaming content. Including his iconic Daz Watches series, which his 2019 tour was based on and his current Daz Ghost Hunt series, which he streams live.

He is also an actor and stand up comedian having made cameos for the likes of 'Brotherhood' and 'Eddie the Eagle', and did his first stand up gig at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2019. Alongside his social media activity Daz continues to write and create short films.

In 2019 Daz completed his first UK tour based on his popular 'Daz Watches' format; the 'Daz Watches Live' show was a huge success and sold out within a couple of days. It gave fans the chance to enjoy the much loved show in a live format that delivered comedy, live game play, audience interaction and some surprises along the way! The tour will be going global in 2023 (post the pandemic).
